A BILL

To amend the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 to prohibit discrimination in the payment of wages on account of sex, race, or national origin, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 (a) SHORT TITLE.—This Act may be cited as the 5 “Fair Pay Act of 2007”.

6 (b) REFERENCE.—Except as provided in section 8, 7 whenever in this Act an amendment or repeal is expressed 8 in terms of an amendment to, or repeal of, a section or

1 other provision, the reference shall be considered to be 2 made to a section or other provision of the Fair Labor
3 Standards Act of 1938 (29 U.S.C. 201 et seq.).

4 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

5 Congress finds the following:

6 (1) Wage rate differentials exist between equiv-
7 alent jobs segregated by sex, race, and national ori-
8 gin in Government employment and in industries en-9 gaged in commerce or in the production of goods for 10 commerce.

11 (2) The existence of such wage rate differen-
12 tials—

13 (A) depresses wages and living standards
14 for employees necessary for their health and ef-15 ficiency;

16 (B) prevents the maximum utilization of 17 the available labor resources;

18 (C) tends to cause labor disputes, thereby
19 burdening, affecting, and obstructing com-
20 merce;

21 (D) burdens commerce and the free flow of 22 goods in commerce; and

23 (E) constitutes an unfair method of com-24 petition.

1           (3) Discrimination in hiring and promotion has 2 played a role in maintaining a segregated work 3 force.

4           (4) Many women and people of color work in 5 occupations dominated by individuals of their same 6 sex, race, and national origin.

7           (5)(A) A study of 400 fields that employed 8 10,000 full-time, year-round workers conducted by 9 the United States Census Bureau in 2000, found 10 that women were able to earn at least as much as 11 men in just 5 fields, hazardous material removal, 12 telecommunications line installation and repair,
13 meeting and convention planning, food preparation,
14 and construction trade assistant work.

15           (B) An Institute for Women’s Policy Research
16 2004 analysis of data collected in the Current Popu-
17 lation Survey by the United States Bureau of Labor
18 Statistics found that women were paid only 76 cents 19 for every dollar that a man makes.

20           (6) Section 6(d) of the Fair Labor Standards
21 Act of 1938 prohibits discrimination in compensa-
22 tion for “equal work” on the basis of sex.

23           (7) Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 24 prohibits discrimination in compensation because of 25 race, color, religion, national origin, and sex. The

1 Supreme Court, in its decision in County of Wash-
2 ington v. Gunther, 452 U.S. 161 (1981), held that 3 title VII's prohibition against discrimination in com-4 pensation also applies to jobs that do not constitute 5 "equal work" as defined in section 6(d) of the Fair
6 Labor Standards Act of 1938 (29 U.S.C. 206(d)).
7 Decisions of lower courts, however, have dem-
8 onstrated that further clarification of existing legis-
9 lation is necessary in order effectively to carry out 10 the intent of Congress to implement the Supreme 11 Court's holding in its Gunther decision.

12 (8) Artificial barriers to the elimination of dis-
13 crimination in compensation based upon sex, race,
14 and national origin continue to exist more than 3
15 decades after the passage of section 6(d) of the Fair
16 Labor Standards Act of 1938 and the Civil Rights
17 Act of 1964 (42 U.S.C. 2000a et seq.). Elimination 18 of such barriers would have positive effects, includ-
19 ing—

20 (A) providing a solution to problems in the 21 economy created by discrimination through 22 wage rate differentials;

23 (B) substantially reducing the number of 24 working women and people of color earning low

1 wages, thereby reducing the dependence on pub-2 lic assistance; and

3 (C) promoting stable families by enabling 4 working family members to earn a fair rate of 5 pay.

6 SEC. 3. EQUAL PAY FOR EQUIVALENT JOBS.

7 (a) AMENDMENT.—Section 6 (29 U.S.C. 206) is 8 amended by adding at the end the following:

9 “(h)(1)(A) Except as provided in subparagraph (B), 10 no employer having employees subject to any provision of 11 this section shall discriminate, within any establishment 12 in which such employees are employed, between employees 13 on the basis of sex, race, or national origin by paying 14 wages to employees in such establishment in a job that 15 is dominated by employees of a particular sex, race, or 16 national origin at a rate less than the rate at which the 17 employer pays wages to employees in such establishment 18 in another job that is dominated by employees of the oppo-
19 site sex or of a different race or national origin, respec-
20 tively, for work on equivalent jobs.

21 “(B) Nothing in subparagraph (A) shall prohibit the 22 payment of different wage rates to employees where such 23 payment is made pursuant to—

24 “(i) a seniority system;

25 “(ii) a merit system;

1           “(iii) a system that measures earnings by quan-
2           tity or quality of production; or

3           “(iv) a differential based on a bona fide factor 4           other than sex, race, or national origin, such as edu-5           cation, training, or experience, except that this 6           clause shall apply only if—

7                   “(I) the employer demonstrates that—

8                           “(aa) such factor—

9                                   “(AA) is job-related with respect 10                                   to the position in question; or

11                                   “(BB) furthers a legitimate busi-12                                   ness purpose, except that this item 13                                   shall not apply if the employee dem-14                                   onstrates that an alternative employ-15                                   ment practice exists that would serve 16                                   the same business purpose without 17                                   producing such differential and that 18                                   the employer has refused to adopt 19                                   such alternative practice; and 20                           “(bb) such factor was actually applied 21                           and used reasonably in light of the as-22                           serted justification; and 23                   “(II) upon the employer succeeding under 24                   subclause (I), the employee fails to demonstrate 25                   that the differential produced by the reliance of

1           the employer on such factor is itself the result 2           of discrimination on the basis of sex, race, or 3           national origin by the employer.

4           “(C) The Equal Employment Opportunity Commis-
5           sion shall issue guidelines specifying criteria for deter-6           mining whether a job is dominated by employees of a par-7           ticular sex, race, or national origin for purposes of sub-8           paragraph (B)(iv). Such guidelines shall not include a list 9           of such jobs.

10          “(D) An employer who is paying a wage rate differen-
11          tial in violation of subparagraph (A) shall not, in order 12          to comply with the provisions of such subparagraph, re-13          duce the wage rate of any employee.

14          “(2) No labor organization or its agents representing 15          employees of an employer having employees subject to any 16          provision of this section shall cause or attempt to cause 17          such an employer to discriminate against an employee in 18          violation of paragraph (1)(A).

19          “(3) For purposes of administration and enforcement 20          of this subsection, any amounts owing to any employee 21          that have been withheld in violation of paragraph (1)(A) 22          shall be deemed to be unpaid minimum wages or unpaid 23          overtime compensation under this section or section 7.

24          “(4) In this subsection:

1           “(A) The term ‘labor organization’ means any 2 organization of any kind, or any agency or employee 3 representation committee or plan, in which employ-4 ees participate and that exists for the purpose, in 5 whole or in part, of dealing with employers con-6 cerning grievances, labor disputes, wages, rates of 7 pay, hours of employment, or conditions of work.

8           “(B) The term ‘equivalent jobs’ means jobs that 9 may be dissimilar, but whose requirements are 10 equivalent, when viewed as a composite of skills, ef-11 fort, responsibility, and working conditions.”.

12       (b) CONFORMING AMENDMENT.—Section 13(a) (29 13 U.S.C. 213(a)) is amended in the matter before paragraph 14 (1) by striking “section 6(d)” and inserting “sections 6 15 (d) and (h)”.

16 SEC. 4. PROHIBITED ACTS.

17       Section 15(a) (29 U.S.C. 215(a)) is amended—

18           (1) by striking the period at the end of para-19 graph (5) and inserting a semicolon; and 20           (2) by adding after paragraph (5) the following:

21           “(6) to discriminate against any individual be-22 cause such individual has opposed any act or prac-23 tice made unlawful by section 6(h) or because such 24 individual made a charge, testified, assisted, or par-

1 participated in any manner in an investigation, pro-2 ceeding, or hearing to enforce section 6(h); or

3 “(7) to discharge or in any other manner dis-4 criminate against, coerce, intimidate, threaten, or 5 interfere with any employee or any other person be-6 cause the employee inquired about, disclosed, com-7 pared, or otherwise discussed the employee’s wages 8 or the wages of any other employee, or because the

12 (d) USE; INSPECTIONS; EXAMINATION; REGULA-

15 following:

16 “(5) The Equal Employment Opportunity Commis-
17 sion may publish any information and data that the Equal

11 implement the provisions of section 6(h) prohibiting wage 12 rate discrimination between employees performing work in 13 equivalent jobs on the basis of sex, race, or national origin.
14 Such studies, information, and technical assistance shall 15 be based on and include reference to the objectives of such 16 section to eliminate such discrimination. In order to 17 achieve the objectives of such section, the Equal Employ-18 ment Opportunity Commission shall carry on a continuing 19 program of research, education, and technical assistance 20 including—

21 “(A) conducting and promoting research with 22 the intent of developing means to expeditiously cor-

4           of communication, and the general public the find-5           ings of studies and other materials for promoting 6           compliance with section 6(h);

7           “(C) sponsoring and assisting State and com-

9           “(D) providing technical assistance to employ-10          ers, labor organizations, professional associations 11          and other interested persons on means of achieving 12          and maintaining compliance with the provisions of 13          section 6(h).

14          “(5) The report submitted biennially by the Secretary 15          to Congress under paragraph (1) shall include a separate 16          evaluation and appraisal regarding the implementation of
