

110TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. R. 2600

To authorize the imposition of a tax on imports from any country that employs indirect taxes and grants rebates of the same upon export and to authorize compensatory payments to eligible United States exporters to neutralize the discriminatory effect of such taxes paid by such exporters if United States trade negotiating objectives regarding border tax treatment in World Trade Organization negotiations are not met.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

JUNE 6, 2007

Mr. PASCRELL (for himself, Mr. JONES of North Carolina, Mr. MICHAUD, and Mr. HUNTER) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Ways and Means

A BILL

To authorize the imposition of a tax on imports from any country that employs indirect taxes and grants rebates of the same upon export and to authorize compensatory payments to eligible United States exporters to neutralize the discriminatory effect of such taxes paid by such exporters if United States trade negotiating objectives regarding border tax treatment in World Trade Organization negotiations are not met.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

1 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

2 This Act may be cited as the “Border Tax Equity
3 Act of 2007”.

4 SEC. 2. FINDINGS AND DECLARATIONS OF POLICY.

5 (a) FINDINGS.—Congress makes the following find-6 ings:

7 (1) The United States largely relies on a direct 8 tax system, whereas 137 countries currently employ 9 one particular form of indirect tax known as value-10 added taxes (VAT) as well as direct taxes. The 11 worldwide VAT tax average in 2005 was 15.7 per-12 cent, and in countries of the European Union it 13 ranges between 15 and 25 percent.

14 (2) Under the rules of the World Trade Organi-15 zation (WTO), direct taxes, such as corporate in-16 come taxes, if rebated or refunded upon the export
17 of goods are viewed as export subsidies and prohib-
18 ited on most goods and are at least potentially ac-19 tionable on all goods. However, indirect taxes, such 20 as sales taxes and VAT, may be rebated or refunded
21 upon the export of goods and such rebate or refund 22 is not defined as constituting a subsidy and hence is 23 not actionable under WTO rules.

24 (3) At present, there are no WTO rules on sub-
25 sidies as applied to trade in services. However, a 26 number of countries currently impose taxes on the

1 import of services and exempt or rebate or refund
2 taxes upon the export of services, to the disadvan-
3 tage of United States services providers.

4 (4) The disparate treatment of border taxes
5 detrimentally affects United States agricultural pro-
6 ducers, manufacturers, and service providers in 7 that—

8 (A) refunds of indirect taxes effectively act 9 as export subsidies to foreign exporters; and

10 (B) United States exporters are subject to 11 double taxation, by paying direct taxes on do-
12 mestic production in the United States and hav-
13 ing their exported product or service face a bor-14 der tax in the importing country consisting of 15 indirect taxes.

16 (5) The disparate treatment of border taxes re-17 sults in a large monetary disadvantage to United 18 States exporters, estimated to equal $93 billion on 19 goods and $47 billion on services. Moreover, since 20 remission of VAT by foreign countries equates to ap-
21 proximately $201 billion in export subsidies on goods
22 exported to the United States and another $38 bil-
23 lion on services exported to the United States,
24 United States producers, in total, suffer an artificial

1 disadvantage of up to $294,000,000,000 on trade in 2 goods and $85,000,000,000 on trade in services.

3 (6) For more than 40 years, United States
4 businesses have complained of border tax inequity
5 and, since 1968, prior United States Administra-
6 tions and Congresses have sought to resolve it.

7 (7) Congress has repeatedly recognized the 8 prejudicial effect of the disparate treatment of bor-9 der taxes with respect to goods and has directed the 10 United States to seek a negotiated solution:

11 (A) In passing the Trade Act of 1974 (19
12 U.S.C. 2101 et seq.), Congress sought “revision
13 of GATT articles with respect to the treatment 14 of border adjustments for international taxes to 15 redress the disadvantage to countries relying 16 primarily on direct rather than indirect taxes 17 for revenue needs.”.

18 (B) In section 1101(b)(16) of the Omnibus
19 Trade and Competitiveness Act of 1988 (19 20 U.S.C. 2901(b)(16) and section 2102(b)(15) of 21 Bipartisan Trade Promotion Authority Act of 22 2002 (19 U.S.C. 3802(b)(15)), Congress de-
23 clared that a principal trade negotiating objec-
24 tive of the United States is to obtain a revision
25 of WTO rules with respect to the treatment of

1 border taxes in order to redress the disadvan-
2 tage to countries relying primarily on direct 3 taxes for revenue rather than indirect taxes.

4 (8) The disparate treatment of border taxes is 5 arbitrary, inequitable, causes economic distortions
6 based only on the type of tax system used by a coun-
7 try, and is a primary obstacle to more balanced 8 trade relations between the United States and its 9 major trading partners.

10 (b) DECLARATIONS OF POLICY.—Congress declares
11 the following:

12 (1) It is critically necessary that the issue of 13 border taxes be addressed and resolved in WTO ne-
14 gotiations, whether in the ongoing Doha Develop-15 ment Round of WTO negotiations or subsequent 16 WTO negotiations.

17 (2) If such WTO negotiations fail to achieve the 18 United States trade negotiating objective of revising
19 WTO rules with respect to the treatment of border
20 taxes in order to redress the disadvantage to coun-
21 tries relying primarily on direct taxes for revenue
22 rather than indirect taxes, then effective action 23 through legislation is warranted given the massive 24 and inequitable distortions to trade that United

1 States agricultural producers, manufacturers, and 2 service providers face as a result of border taxes.

3 SEC. 3. REPORT ON RESULTS OF WTO NEGOTIATIONS TO 4 REVISE WTO RULES REGARDING BORDER
5 TAXES.

6 (a) REPORT REQUIRED.—Not later than 60 days
7 after the completion of WTO negotiations, or by January
8 1, 2009, whichever occurs first, the United States Trade
9 Representative shall submit to Congress a report certi-
10 fying whether or not each of the United States trade nego-
11 tiating objectives regarding border tax treatment, as speci-12 fied in subsection (b), has been met as a result of such 13 negotiations.

14 (b) U.S. TRADE NEGOTIATING OBJECTIVES RE-15 GARDING BORDER TAX TREATMENT SPECIFIED.—The 16 United States trade negotiating objectives regarding bor-
17 der tax treatment specified in this subsection are the fol-
18 lowing:

19 (1) With respect to trade in goods, the revision
20 of WTO rules with respect to the treatment of bor-
21 der adjustments for internal taxes to redress the dis-
22 advantage to countries relying primarily on direct 23 taxes for revenue rather than indirect taxes, as pro-
24 vided for in section 2102(b)(15) of Bipartisan Trade

1 Promotion Authority Act of 2002 (19 U.S.C.
2 3802(b)(15)).

3 (2) With respect to trade in services—

4 (A) the elimination of the disadvantage in 5 trade in services that exists for countries rely-6 ing primarily on direct taxes that are not ad-
7 justed at the border rather than indirect taxes 8 that are adjusted at the border; and

9 (B) the revision of WTO rules regarding 10 trade in services to ensure that such rules do
11 not result in disparate treatment of border ad-
12 justments for internal taxes based on the direct 13 or indirect nature of such taxes.

14 (c) DEFINITION.—In this section, the terms “WTO
15 negotiations” and “negotiations” mean the ongoing Doha
16 Development Round of World Trade Organization negotia-
17 tions or subsequent WTO negotiations that may result in 18 revisions to WTO rules to meet the United States trade 19 negotiating objectives regarding border tax treatment, as 20 specified in subsection (b).

21 SEC. 4. TAX ON IMPORTS FROM FOREIGN COUNTRIES WITH 22 AN INDIRECT TAX SYSTEM.

24 4461 et seq.) is amended by adding at the end the fol-
25 lowing new subchapter G:
