14 SEC. 602. SENSE OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES ON
15 ACQUISITIONS CONDUCTED UNDER THE GEN-
16 ERAL SERVICES ADMINISTRATION’S FED-
17 ERAL SUPPLY SCHEDULE.

18 (a) FINDINGS.—Congress finds the following:

19 (1) The Small Business Act was adopted by 20 Congress to ensure that small business concerns re-
21 ceive fair access to, and a fair share of, Federal gov-
22 ernment contracts and subcontracts.

23 (2) There is a disagreement between the Gen-
24 eral Services Administration and the Small Business
25 Administration on whether the Small Business Act

1 applies to the acquisitions under the General Serv-
2 ices Administration's Federal Supply Schedule,
3 which account for over $30,000,000,000 in procure-
4 ment dollars awarded each year.

5 (3) As demonstrated in proceedings of the 6 White House Acquisition Advisory Panel, small busi-
7 nesses hold 79.6 percent of contracts under the Fed-
8 eral Supply Schedule, but receive only 37.1 percent
9 of dollars awarded under the Federal Supply Sched-
10 ule, and this disparity has a significant impact on 11 the competitive viability of small business concerns
12 in government contracting.

13 (b) SENSE OF THE HOUSE.—Therefore, it is the 14 sense of the House of Representatives that small business
15 set-asides should not be excluded from any acquisitions
16 under the General Services Administration's Federal Sup-
17 ply Schedule.

18 SEC. 603. STUDY ON FRIVOLOUS PROTESTS.

19 (a) STUDY.—The Administrator of the Small Busi-
20 ness Administration shall conduct a study to determine,
21 with respect to small business contracts, whether incum-
22 bent Federal contractors submit frivolous protests to ex-
23 tend the length of current contracts before protest deci-
24 sions are resolved.

1 (b) CONTENTS.—In conducting the study, the Ad-
2 ministrator shall—

3 (1) determine the number of Government Ac-
4 countability Office bid protests and Small Business
5 Administration size protests filed by incumbent Fed-
6 eral contractors with respect to small business con-
7 tracts, the number of incumbent contracts extended
8 because of the protest, the extra costs of extending 9 incumbent contracts during the protest, and the 10 final rulings of these protests;

11 (2) determine the financial impact of protests
12 filed by incumbent Federal contractors on small
13 businesses that were originally awarded the pro-
14 tested small business contracts, including costs asso-
15 ciated with defending the protests and costs incurred
16 by Federal agencies;

17 (3) identify the incumbent Federal contractors
18 that file the most unsuccessful protests on small 19 business contracts; and

20 (4) develop recommendations—

21 (A) to ease any financial burden on small
22 businesses during the protest of small business
23 contracts; and

1 (B) to discourage frivolous protests by in-
2 cumbent Federal contractors on small business
3 contracts.

4 (c) CONSULTATION.—In conducting the study, the 5 Administrator shall consult with the Government Account-
6 ability Office, any necessary Federal agencies, and the Of-7 fice of Federal Procurement Policy.

8 (d) REPORT.—Not later than 180 days after the date
9 of the enactment of this Act, the Administrator shall sub-
10 mit to Congress a report on the results of the study, to-
11 gether with the recommendations developed under sub-
12 section (b)(4).

13 SEC. 604. SMALL BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION LIAISON.

14 (a) ESTABLISHMENT.—The Administrator of the 15 Small Business Administration shall create a liaison posi-
16 tion whose duty it is to ensure that section 2(i) of the 17 Small Business Act is carried out.

18 (b) FUNCTIONS.—In carrying out the duty described 19 in subsection (a), the liaison shall consult with the Assist-
20 ant Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security
21 for United States Immigration and Customs Enforcement.

22 SEC. 605. PROHIBITION ON BUSINESS-CLASS OR FIRST-
23 CLASS AIRLINE TRAVEL.

24 In carrying out the provisions of the Small Business
25 Contracting Program Improvements Act, the Small Busi-

1 ness Administrator or any employee may not purchase
2 business-class or first-class airline travel in contravention 3 of sections 301–10.122 through 301–10.124 of title 41,
4 Code of Federal Regulations.

Passed the House of Representatives October 30, 2007.

LORRAINE C. MILLER,

Clerk.
