A BILL

To require the Secretary of the Treasury to mint coins in recognition and celebration of the establishment of the United States Army in 1775, to honor the American soldier of both today and yesterday, in wartime and in peace, and to commemorate the traditions, history, and heritage of the United States Army and its role in American society, from the Colonial period to today.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

1 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

2 This Act may be cited as the “United States Army
3 Commemorative Coin Act of 2008”.

4 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

5 Congress finds that—

6 (1) the United States Army, founded in 1775,
7 has served this country well for over 230 years;

8 (2) the United States Army has played a deci-
9 sive role in protecting and defending freedom
10 throughout the history of the United States, from 11 the Colonial period to today, in wartime and in 12 peace, and has consistently answered the call to 13 serve the American people at home and abroad since
14 the Revolutionary War;

15 (3) the sacrifice of the American soldier, of all 16 ranks, since the earliest days of the Republic has 17 been immense and is deserving of the unique rec-
18 ognition bestowed by commemorative coinage;

19 (4) the Army, the Nation’s oldest and largest 20 military service, is the only service branch that cur-
21 rently does not have a comprehensive national mu-
22 seum celebrating, preserving, and displaying its her-
23 itage and honoring its veterans;

24 (5) the National Museum of the United States
25 Army will be—

1 (A) the Army’s only service-wide, national 2 museum honoring all soldiers, of all ranks, in 3 all branches since 1775; and

4 (B) located at Fort Belvoir, Virginia,
5 across the Potomac River from the Nation’s
6 Capitol, a 10-minute drive from Mount Vernon,
7 the home of the Army’s first Commander-in-
8 Chief, and astride the Civil War’s decisive
9 Washington-Richmond corridor;

10 (6) the Army Historical Foundation (in this Act 11 referred to as the “Foundation”), founded in 12 1983—

13 (A) is dedicated to preserving the history
14 and heritage of the American soldier; and

15 (B) seeks to educate future Americans to 16 fully appreciate the sacrifices that generations
17 of American soldiers have made to safeguard
18 the freedoms of this Nation;

19 (7) the completion and opening to the public of 20 the National Museum of the United States Army
21 will immeasurably help in fulfilling that mission;

22 (8) the Foundation is a nongovernmental, mem-
23 ber-based, and publicly supported nonprofit organi-
24 zation that is dependent on funds from members,
25 donations, and grants for support;

1           (9) the Foundation uses such support to help
2           create the National Museum of the United States
3           Army, refurbish historical Army buildings, acquire
4           and conserve Army historical art and artifacts, sup-
5           port Army history educational programs, for re-6           search, and publication of historical materials on the 7           American soldier, and to provide support and coun-
8           sel to private and governmental organizations com-
9           mitted to the same goals as the Foundation;

10           (10) in 2000, the Secretary of the Army des-
11           ignated the Foundation as its primary partner in the 12           building of the National Museum of the United 13           States Army; and

14           (11) the Foundation is actively engaged in exe-
15           cuting a major capital campaign to support the Na-
16           tional Museum of the United States Army.
