RESOLUTION CHAPTER _____

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 48—Relative to Child Awareness Week.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SCR 48, Harman. Child Awareness Week.

This measure would designate the week of September 17, 2007, as Child Awareness Week to honor children's charities, youth-serving organizations, and other nongovernmental organizations that are committed to enriching and bettering the lives of children and youth in California and the rest of the country.

WHEREAS, Numerous individuals, children's organizations, and youth-serving organizations that work with children and youths on a daily basis provide invaluable services that serve to enrich and better the lives of children and youths; and

WHEREAS, By strengthening and supporting children's and youth-serving charities and other similar nongovernmental organizations, and by encouraging greater collaboration among these organizations, the lives of many more children may be improved and enriched; and

WHEREAS, Raising people's awareness of, and increasing the support for, charitable and nonprofit organizations in the state serving children and youth that provide access to health care, social services, education, the arts, sports, and other services will help to better the lives of children and youths; and

WHEREAS, September is a time when parents, families, teachers, school administrators, and others increase their focus on preparing children and youths for the future as they begin a new school year and it is a time for the people of this state to highlight, and be mindful of, the needs of children and youths; and

WHEREAS, Children's charities, youth-serving organizations, and other nongovernmental organizations across California and the rest of the country should be recognized for the work they do to improve the lives and promote the well-being of children and youth in this state and country; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the Legislature hereby designates the week of September 17, 2007, as Child Awareness Week to honor children's charities, youth-serving organizations, and other nongovernmental organizations that are committed to enriching and bettering the lives of children and youth in California and the rest of the county; and that public officials and citizens of California are encouraged to observe the week with appropriate activities and programs; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the author for appropriate distribution.
