HB No. 238

Abstract: Requires insurers which write homeowners' insurance in any part of the state to offer homeowners' insurance coverage, including windstorm and hail coverage, on any residential structure in the state at rates no higher than those rates charged by the La. Citizens Property Insurance Corporation in the parish in which the structure is located.

Proposed law requires any authorized insurer or approved unauthorized insurer which writes homeowners' insurance in any part of the state to, as a condition of doing business in this state, offer homeowners' insurance coverage, including windstorm and hail coverage, on any residential structure in the state at rates no higher than those rates charged by the La. Citizens Property Insurance Corporation in the parish in which the structure is located.
