HB No. 328

Abstract: Deletes provision that certain unadjustable or incorrigible children who disrupt the orderly processes of their school shall be considered delinquents.

Present law provides that unadjustable or incorrigible children who, through no fault of their parents or tutors or other persons having charge of them, regularly disrupt the orderly processes of their assigned school shall be considered as delinquents and may be reported by the visiting teacher or supervisor of child welfare and attendance to the parish juvenile court to be dealt with in the manner prescribed by law.

Proposed law retains present law except deletes provision that such children shall be considered delinquents.

Present law provides that any student who exhibits disruptive behavior, an incorrigible attitude, or other general discipline problems may be recommended by the principal for expulsion, assignment to an appropriate alternative education program, or transfer to adult education if such student is:

- (1) 17 or older with less than five units of credit toward graduation.
- (2) 18 or older with less than 10 units of credit toward graduation.
- (3) 19 or older with less than 15 units of credit toward graduation.

Proposed law retains present law.
