

1 WHEREAS, the poor performance of ICF Emergency Management Services, LLC,
2 in the management of The Road Home Program, coupled with the apparent inability of the 3 office of community development to enforce the provisions of the contract which address
4 the contractor's performance, has resulted in a program which rather than providing relief 5 to persons sustaining losses, instead produces more frustration and grief; and

6 WHEREAS, the Louisiana Legislature finds that it is the duty of the division of 7 administration, office of community development, to remedy this situation immediately by 8 canceling the contract with ICF Emergency Management Services so that a new solution for 9 delivery of services necessary under The Road Home Program can begin.

10 THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Louisiana Legislature does hereby direct 11 the division of administration, office of community development, to remedy this situation
12 immediately by canceling the state contract with ICF Emergency Management Services, 13 LLC.

14 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Louisiana Legislature does hereby direct the 15 division of administration, office of community development, to pursue all legal avenues to 16 recoup the public monies which have been paid so far for totally inadequate performance.
