1.6 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF MINNESOTA:

1.7 Section 1. [181.985] WORKPLACE COMMUNICATIONS.

1.8 Subdivision 1. Definitions. (a) For the purposes of this section, the following terms
1.9 have the meanings given them in this subdivision.

1.10 (b) "Employer" means any person, business entity, or nonprofit organization, having
1.11 one or more employees in Minnesota, and includes the state and any political subdivisions
1.12 of the state.

1.13 (c) "Employee" means a person who performs services for hire in Minnesota for an
1.14 employer, but does not include independent contractors.

1.15 (d) "Communication" means any printed or electronic document, letter, brochure,
1.16 flyer, advertisement, e-mail, text message, or similar means pertaining to union business
1.17 or labor organizing as provided under state or federal law.

1.18 (e) "Employee organization" or "labor organization" have the same meanings given
1.19 them in sections 179.01, subdivision 6, and 179A.03, subdivision 6.

1.20 Subd. 2. Prohibited practice. An employer may not refuse to hire a job applicant
1.21 or discipline or discharge an employee because the applicant or employee has received
1.22 or responded to a communication from an employee organization or labor organization.
1.23 Nor shall an employer prohibit an employee from receiving communications from an
1.24 employee organization at the employee's work location, work mailbox, in an employee
1.25 break room or meal area, or on the employee's work computer. Reasonable rules
