A RESOLUTION

To commend and congratulate Lee Colin Henagan on his eight years of service and dedication to the Senate of the Legislature of Louisiana.

WHEREAS, Lee C. Henagan began working as a page in the Louisiana House of Representatives as a junior in high school on the recommendation of then Representative John Smith; and

WHEREAS, in 2003, Lee became the legislative aide to Senator Robert Adley and is presently an aide to Senators Adley and John Alario and has proven to be invaluable to those Senators for whom he has served; and

WHEREAS, Lee consistently reviews each and every bill before it comes to the floor and understands the budgetary process as well as any legislator, proving his attention to detail, and dedication to his work; and

WHEREAS, in the Summer of 2002, Lee was a finance and budget intern in the Washington, D.C. office of U.S. Senator Mary Landrieu and while interning with Senator Landrieu, Lee analyzed President Bush's proposal for the structuring of the Department of Homeland Security in the aftermath of September 11, 2001; and

WHEREAS, in 2006 Lee C. Henagan earned a Bachelor of Science Degree in Finance from Louisiana State University and continued his education at LSU earning a Master of Business Administration, graduating summa cum laude with a 4.0 grade point average; and

WHEREAS, while a student at LSU, Lee was a six year member of the LSU Tiger Marching Band playing trombone; a four year member of the Bengal Brass Ensemble; a member of the Schola Cantorum; was a member of the Tiger Band Fund-Raising Task Force, which sought funding for a new band hall; served as president of the College Democrats of Louisiana for two years; and completed a graduate assistantship with the LSU Office of External Affairs for the 2007-2008 academic year; and

WHEREAS, this is Lee's last legislative session, as he has accepted a position with a financial advising firm and will begin his new career in August 2008; and

WHEREAS, Lee C. Henagan will always be thought of as a member of the Louisiana Senate family because of the relationships he has forged here as a member of the legislative session staff, and because of the difference he has made in his state.

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the Senate of the Legislature of Louisiana does hereby extend its highest commendations and congratulations to Lee Colin Henagan for his extraordinary achievements and his hard work for the Senate and the state of Louisiana, and extends its best wishes in all his future endeavors.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this Resolution be transmitted to Lee Colin Henagan.
